About the Organization

Naba Suchana Foundation is a non-profit, community-based organization dedicated to promoting inclusive social development and improving the quality of life of marginalized and underserved communities. The foundation works with a vision of building an equitable, healthy, educated, and empowered society where every individual has access to opportunities for growth and dignity.

The organization focuses primarily on four key thematic areas:

- Education*
- Health*
- Women Development*
- Child Development*
- Environmental Awareness and Community Welfare*

Through grassroots engagement, awareness programs, capacity-building initiatives, and collaborative community participation, Naba Suchana Foundation strives to bring sustainable and meaningful social change.

The year 2025 marked an important phase in the organization's journey, as multiple outreach programs were successfully conducted across Birbhum and Purba Burdwan districts. These initiatives addressed critical social needs including healthcare access, environmental sustainability, hygiene awareness, voluntary blood donation, and legal awareness for women and children.

From the Desk of the Secretary

Dear Members, Donors, and Supporters,

Greetings and warm wishes to each one of you! As we come together to reflect on the journey of the past year, I feel deeply honored to present the Annual Report of Naba Suchana Foundation, which stands as a testament to the dedication, compassion, and collective efforts of our entire team and supporters.

Over the past year, our organization has taken meaningful steps toward creating positive social change through our initiatives in Education, Health, Women Development, and Child Development. With your continuous encouragement, generous support, and active collaboration, we have been able to reach communities in need and work toward building a more inclusive, aware, and empowered society.

This year has been a journey of learning, growth, and impact. From organizing educational support programs and health awareness initiatives to empowering women and nurturing the development of children, every effort has been guided by our shared vision of social progress and community well-being. The smiles, confidence, and hope we have witnessed in the communities we serve remain our greatest motivation.

None of these achievements would have been possible without the unwavering trust, commitment, and contributions of our members, volunteers, donors, and well-wishers. Your belief in our mission continues to inspire us to work harder and reach further.

As we move forward, Naba Suchana Foundation remains committed to expanding our initiatives, strengthening community partnerships, and creating sustainable opportunities for positive change. Together, we will continue to work toward a brighter and more equitable future.

With heartfelt gratitude and sincere appreciation,

Secretary

Naba Suchana Foundation

From the Desk of the President

Dear Members, Donors, Volunteers, and Well-Wishers,

It gives me immense pleasure to address you through the Annual Report of Naba Suchana Foundation. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to each one of you for your continued support, trust, and commitment to our shared vision of social development and community empowerment.

Over the past year, our foundation has worked with dedication to bring meaningful change through initiatives focused on Education, Health, Women Development, and Child Development. Every program and activity we have undertaken reflects our belief that sustainable progress begins with empowered individuals and informed communities.

The journey has been both inspiring and challenging, yet the enthusiasm of our volunteers, the guidance of our members, and the generosity of our supporters have helped us overcome obstacles and expand our impact. Together, we have been able to reach underserved communities, spread awareness, and create opportunities that encourage growth, dignity, and self-reliance.

I am proud of the collective efforts of our team, whose passion and hard work continue to strengthen the foundation's mission. The achievements highlighted in this report are not just milestones for our organization but symbols of hope and positive transformation within the communities we serve.

As we look ahead, Naba Suchana Foundation remains committed to strengthening its initiatives, building stronger partnerships, and creating sustainable solutions for social development. I invite all of you to continue walking alongside us in this journey of service and change.

Together, let us keep working towards a more compassionate, inclusive, and empowered society.

With sincere appreciation and warm regards,

President

Naba Suchana Foundation

Acknowledgement

Naba Suchana Foundation expresses its sincere gratitude to all individuals and organizations who have supported and contributed to our journey throughout the year. The achievements highlighted in this report would not have been possible without the collective efforts, encouragement, and cooperation of many dedicated people.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to our members, volunteers, donors, supporters, and well-wishers whose commitment and belief in our mission have strengthened our initiatives in Education, Health, Women Development, and Child Development. Your continuous guidance, participation, and generosity have enabled us to reach communities in need and create meaningful social impact.

We also acknowledge the valuable support of community leaders, partner organizations, and local stakeholders who have worked alongside us in implementing our programs successfully. Their collaboration has played an important role in expanding our outreach and effectiveness.

Finally, we express our deep appreciation to every individual who has contributed their time, skills, and resources to help us move forward with our vision of building an empowered, inclusive, and socially responsible society.

With gratitude,

Naba Suchana Foundation

Introduction

Naba Suchana Foundation is a non-profit organization committed to promoting social development and empowering communities through inclusive and sustainable initiatives. Established with the vision of creating a more equitable and socially responsible society, the foundation works actively to address key social challenges and improve the quality of life for underserved populations.

Our organization focuses on four major areas — Education, Health, Women Development, and Child Development — recognizing that these sectors play a vital role in building strong and self-reliant communities. Through awareness programs, community engagement, capacity-building activities, and grassroots interventions, we strive to create opportunities that encourage growth, dignity, and long-term social progress.

Naba Suchana Foundation believes that real change begins at the community level. By working closely with local people, volunteers, and stakeholders, we aim to foster awareness, empower individuals with knowledge and skills, and promote equal opportunities for all.

Driven by compassion, collaboration, and commitment, the foundation continues to work toward creating positive and lasting impact, ensuring that every individual has access to opportunities for a healthier, educated, and empowered future.

Activity Report – 01

Blood Donation Camp

Date: 16th August 2025

Venue: Natunpukur, Dakshinpar, Bolpur, Birbhum – 731204

Background

Access to safe blood remains a major healthcare challenge in many regions. Hospitals and emergency medical services often face shortages, especially during emergencies, surgeries, and maternal care situations. Recognizing this need, Naba Suchana Foundation organized a voluntary Blood Donation Camp to encourage community participation in life-saving initiatives.

Objectives

- Promote voluntary and safe blood donation practices.
- Create awareness about the importance of regular blood donation.
- Support hospitals and blood banks with essential blood units.
- Encourage youth participation in social responsibility activities.

Planning and Preparation

The program involved extensive planning including coordination with medical professionals, awareness campaigns within the locality, volunteer mobilization, and logistical arrangements. Community announcements and personal outreach played a significant role in motivating participants.

Program Implementation

The camp was inaugurated in the presence of local community leaders and foundation members. A qualified medical team conducted health screenings including blood pressure checks, haemoglobin testing, and medical history evaluation to ensure donor safety.

A hygienic and organized environment was maintained throughout the donation process. Volunteers assisted donors and ensured smooth management of registration and post-donation care.

Community Participation

Local youth and residents actively participated, demonstrating strong community solidarity. Many first-time donors expressed enthusiasm and willingness to participate in future drives.

Outcomes

- Total Donors: 09
- Total Blood Units Collected: 09
- Increased awareness regarding voluntary blood donation.
- Strengthened collaboration between community members and the Foundation.

Impact

The initiative contributed directly to saving lives while also helping break myths and fears associated with blood donation. Participants gained confidence and awareness about the health benefits and humanitarian importance of donating blood.

Conclusion

The Blood Donation Camp successfully fostered a culture of compassion and community service. The Foundation plans to organize similar camps regularly to support healthcare systems.

Activity Report – 02

Health Camp

Date: 16th August 2025

Venue: Natunpukur, Dakshinpar, Bolpur, Birbhum

Introduction

Healthcare accessibility remains limited in many rural communities. To address this issue, Naba Suchana Foundation organized a free Health Camp aimed at providing medical consultation and promoting preventive healthcare awareness.

Objectives

- Provide free medical check-ups and consultations.
- Promote hygiene and preventive healthcare practices.
- Identify common health problems within the community.
- Encourage healthy lifestyle habits.

Program Activities

The camp included:

- General health consultations
- Blood pressure and blood sugar testing
- Weight and basic diagnostic assessments
- Nutritional and lifestyle counselling

Doctors interacted directly with patients, addressing health concerns and offering preventive guidance.

Participation

A large number of beneficiaries from different age groups attended the camp, including elderly individuals, women, and children who rarely receive regular medical consultation.

Outcomes

- Total Beneficiaries Served: 36
- Early identification of common health issues.
- Increased awareness about nutrition, hygiene, and disease prevention.
- Enhanced trust between the community and healthcare providers.

Impact

The camp helped bridge healthcare gaps by offering accessible medical support. Participants reported improved understanding of preventive healthcare practices.

Future Plan

The Foundation intends to conduct periodic health camps focusing on maternal health, child nutrition, and chronic disease prevention.

Activity Report – 03

Tree Plantation and Tree Donation Program

Date: 20th August 2025

Venue: Bolpur Shantiniketan, Birbhum

Background

Environmental degradation and climate change pose serious threats to ecological balance. Naba Suchana Foundation initiated a Tree Plantation and Donation Program to promote environmental responsibility.

Objectives

- Increase green cover.
- Promote biodiversity conservation.
- Encourage environmental awareness among youth.
- Distribute saplings for sustainable greenery.

Activities Conducted

Tree Plantation Drive

Foundation members and volunteers planted saplings in selected areas. Native and fruit-bearing species were prioritized to ensure ecological sustainability and community benefit.

Tree Donation Initiative

Saplings were distributed to households and institutions, encouraging long-term environmental stewardship.

Awareness Interaction

Sessions were conducted discussing climate change, deforestation, and individual responsibility toward nature conservation.

Participation

- Total Participants: 17
- Saplings Planted: 7
- Saplings Donated: 9

Outcomes

- Improved environmental awareness.
- Community commitment toward tree care.
- Increased local participation in sustainability initiatives.

Impact

The program encouraged behavioral change and strengthened environmental consciousness among participants.

Conclusion

The initiative marked a significant step toward promoting ecological responsibility and sustainable living.

Activity Report – 04

Handwashing Awareness Program

Date: 28th September 2025

Venue: Kojalsa Village, Ketugram Police Station Area, Purba Burdwan

Introduction

Poor hygiene practices contribute significantly to infectious diseases. To address this issue, the Foundation organized a Handwashing Awareness Program focusing on preventive health education.

Objectives

- Educate communities about hand hygiene.
- Reduce disease transmission through proper handwashing.
- Promote healthy habits among children and women.
- Encourage cleanliness practices.

Program Implementation

Foundation members demonstrated proper handwashing techniques using interactive methods. Discussions emphasized hygiene during meals, after outdoor activities, and before handling food.

Handwash bottles were distributed among participants to encourage long-term behavioural adoption.

Outcome

Participants showed strong engagement and expressed willingness to maintain hygienic practices. Awareness regarding disease prevention significantly improved.

Impact

The program contributed to improved community hygiene awareness and promoted preventive healthcare behavior.

Activity Report – 05

Women's Legal Rights and Protection of Women & Children Awareness Camp

Date: 15th October 2025

Venue: Naba Suchana Foundation Office, Bolpur Shantiniketan

Background

Lack of awareness about legal rights often prevents women and children from seeking protection against abuse and discrimination. This awareness camp aimed to educate and empower communities through legal knowledge.

Objectives

- Educate women about legal rights.
- Raise awareness on domestic violence and dowry laws.
- Inform communities about child protection laws.
- Promote gender equality and safety.

Program Details

Legal experts and social workers discussed:

- Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005
- Dowry Prohibition Act
- POCSO Act
- Government schemes and helplines

Interactive discussions allowed participants to share concerns and seek guidance.

Outcomes

- Increased legal awareness among women.
- Greater confidence in seeking help.
- Improved understanding of child protection mechanisms.

Impact

The program empowered participants with knowledge and encouraged collective responsibility toward safeguarding women and children.

Overall Impact of 2025 Activities

Throughout the year, Naba Suchana Foundation successfully reached diverse communities through health, environmental, social, and awareness-based initiatives. The programs strengthened community participation, promoted awareness, and contributed toward sustainable development goals at the grassroots level.

Key achievements include:

- Promotion of voluntary blood donation culture.
- Improved access to healthcare services.
- Increased environmental awareness.
- Enhanced hygiene practices.
- Empowerment through legal awareness.

Future Vision

Moving forward, the Foundation aims to:

- Expand outreach programs to additional rural areas.
- Organize regular health and awareness camps.
- Strengthen women and child development initiatives.
- Promote environmental sustainability projects.
- Encourage youth leadership and volunteerism.

Conclusion

The activities conducted during 2025 reflect the strong commitment of Naba Suchana Foundation toward community development and social transformation. With continued support from members, volunteers, donors, and community stakeholders, the Foundation remains dedicated to building a healthier, educated, and empowered society.

Cloth Collection and Distribution Drive

Organization: Naba Suchana Foundation

Program Name: Old Cloth Collection and Distribution Drive

Activity Period: 1st February 2025 – 5th March 2025

Location: Bolpur and Nearby Surrounding Areas, Birbhum

Beneficiaries Covered: 122 Individuals

Introduction

Naba Suchana Foundation organized a Cloth Collection and Distribution Drive with the objective of supporting underprivileged individuals and families who lack access to adequate clothing. The initiative focused on collecting usable old clothes from different areas of Bolpur and redistributing them among people in need across Bolpur and its surrounding localities.

This activity was undertaken as part of the Foundation's commitment to community welfare, social responsibility, and sustainable resource sharing, ensuring that reusable items reach those who need them the most while reducing waste.

Objectives

- To collect reusable clothes from community members and promote the spirit of sharing.
- To support economically disadvantaged individuals and families with essential clothing.
- To encourage sustainable practices through reuse and redistribution.
- To strengthen community participation in social welfare initiatives.

Program Implementation

The drive was conducted over a period of more than one month, from 1st February to 5th March 2025. Foundation members and volunteers collected old but usable clothes from various neighbourhoods across Bolpur. Awareness was created among residents encouraging them to donate clean and wearable garments.

After collection, all clothes were carefully sorted, cleaned where necessary, and categorized according to age group and usability to ensure respectful and organized distribution.

Distribution Process

The distribution was carried out in Bolpur and nearby surrounding areas among individuals and families identified as genuinely in need. Special attention was given to elderly persons, children, and economically vulnerable households.

Volunteers ensured fair and dignified distribution, maintaining transparency and respect for beneficiaries throughout the process.

Outcomes

- Total Beneficiaries Supported: 122 individuals
- Large quantity of reusable clothing successfully redistributed.
- Increased awareness about community sharing and sustainability.
- Active participation from local residents and volunteers.

Impact

The initiative not only provided essential clothing to those in need but also promoted compassion, social responsibility, and environmental sustainability within the community. The program strengthened bonds between donors, volunteers, and beneficiaries, creating a sense of collective responsibility.

Conclusion

The Cloth Collection and Distribution Drive was a meaningful humanitarian initiative that reflected the values of empathy and community cooperation upheld by Naba Suchana Foundation. The Foundation aims to continue such drives in the future to support vulnerable communities and encourage responsible reuse of resources.

Activity Report – 07

Educational Support Initiative for Underprivileged Students

Organization: Naba Suchana Foundation

Program Name: Educational Support and Sponsorship Program

Location: Bolpur and Surrounding Areas, Birbhum

Beneficiaries Covered: 9 Students (Different Schools and Classes)

Introduction

Education is one of the most powerful tools for social transformation and empowerment. Understanding that many talented and motivated students are forced to discontinue their studies due to financial constraints, Naba Suchana Foundation initiated an Educational Support Program to assist students who have the willingness to study but lack the necessary financial resources.

Through this initiative, the Foundation has taken complete educational responsibility for selected students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds to ensure that their learning journey continues without interruption.

Objectives

- To support students who are unable to continue education due to financial difficulties.
- To promote equal access to education for children from underprivileged families.
- To reduce school dropout rates in economically weaker communities.
- To encourage students to pursue education and build a better future.

Program Implementation

After identifying students through community interaction and need assessment, the Foundation selected deserving candidates from different schools in Bolpur and nearby areas. The selection process focused on students' financial condition, academic interest, and willingness to continue their education.

Naba Suchana Foundation has taken responsibility for their essential educational needs, which include:

- School-related expenses
- Educational materials such as books, copies, and stationery
- Support required for continuing regular schooling

The students belong to different classes, ensuring support across multiple age groups and educational levels.

Beneficiaries

- Total Students Supported: 9

- Students belong to various schools and different academic classes.
- All beneficiaries come from financially challenged families but demonstrate strong interest in education.

Impact

This initiative has helped remove financial barriers that previously prevented students from continuing their studies. The program has restored confidence among both students and their families, motivating them toward academic growth and long-term self-reliance.

Parents expressed relief and gratitude as the educational burden was reduced, allowing children to focus fully on learning.

Future Vision

Naba Suchana Foundation aims to expand this program by supporting more students in the coming years and introducing mentorship, career guidance, and skill development opportunities.

Conclusion

The Educational Support Initiative reflects the Foundation's commitment to empowering the next generation through education. By investing in children today, Naba Suchana Foundation is contributing toward building a knowledgeable, confident, and self-reliant society for tomorrow.

Activity Report – 08

Organization: Naba Suchana Foundation

Program Name: One Meal for Everyone

Activity Date: 4th March 2026

Location: Bolpur and Nearby Areas

Beneficiaries Covered: 29 Children

Introduction

Naba Suchana Foundation successfully organized the program titled “One Meal for Everyone” with the aim of addressing hunger and supporting underprivileged children in the Bolpur region. The initiative marked a compassionate effort to ensure that no child remains deprived of a basic meal, reinforcing the Foundation’s commitment to social welfare and community service.

Objectives

- To provide nutritious meals to underprivileged children.
- To spread awareness about food insecurity and hunger issues.
- To encourage community involvement in humanitarian activities.
- To promote kindness and social responsibility among volunteers and citizens.

Program Implementation

The program was conducted on 4th March 2026, marking the auspicious beginning of this initiative. Members and volunteers of the Foundation actively participated in preparing and organizing food distribution across different parts of Bolpur. Proper planning ensured that the food was hygienic, fresh, and suitable for children.

Distribution Process

Food was distributed among children in various locations across Bolpur. Special focus was given to reaching children from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Volunteers ensured a smooth, respectful, and organized distribution process, maintaining dignity and care for every beneficiary.

Outcomes

- Total Beneficiaries Supported: 29 children
- Successful distribution of meals across multiple locations
- Positive engagement from volunteers and community members
- Increased awareness about the importance of food sharing

Impact

The program brought smiles and relief to many children while fostering a spirit of empathy and compassion within the community. It also strengthened the Foundation’s connection with local residents and highlighted the importance of collective efforts in addressing basic needs like food.

Conclusion

The “One Meal for Everyone” initiative was a meaningful step towards building a caring and responsible society. Naba Suchana Foundation looks forward to continuing such efforts in the future, expanding its reach and ensuring that more individuals benefit from similar humanitarian programs.

Activity Report – 09

Organization: Naba Suchana Foundation

Program Name: One Meal for Everyone (Day 2)

Activity Date: 23rd March 2026

Location: Bolpur Station Area, Dangali Kalitola, and Nearby Areas

Beneficiaries Covered: 60 Individuals

Introduction

Naba Suchana Foundation carried out the second day of its “One Meal for Everyone” program, continuing its mission to provide food support to underprivileged individuals. The initiative was also organized in observance of the Martyrs’ Day, paying tribute to the sacrifice of Bhagat Singh, Rajguru, and Sukhdev, inspiring the spirit of service and humanity.

Objectives

- To provide meals to economically disadvantaged individuals.
- To expand the reach of the ongoing food distribution program.
- To promote compassion and community participation.
- To commemorate Martyrs’ Day through meaningful social service.

Program Implementation

On 23rd March 2026, Foundation members and volunteers actively organized and distributed food in multiple locations including the Bolpur Station area, Dangali Kalitola, and surrounding localities. The program was conducted as a mark of respect on Martyrs’ Day, remembering the sacrifice of national heroes. Proper planning ensured that the food was hygienic, fresh, and distributed efficiently.

Distribution Process

Food was distributed among poor and needy individuals across the Bolpur Station area, Dangali Kalitola, and nearby areas. Volunteers ensured a smooth and respectful distribution process, maintaining dignity and fairness for all beneficiaries.

Outcomes

- Total Beneficiaries Supported: 60 individuals
- Successful distribution across multiple locations
- Strong participation from volunteers
- Increased awareness about food sharing and social responsibility

Impact

The initiative not only provided essential meals to people in need but also honored the legacy of the martyrs by promoting values of sacrifice, service, and unity. It strengthened community bonds and encouraged a spirit of empathy and responsibility among all participants.

Conclusion

The second day of the “One Meal for Everyone” program was a meaningful blend of humanitarian service and remembrance. Naba Suchana Foundation remains committed to continuing such initiatives that both serve society and uphold the values of our national heroes.
